

21Vianet and Alibaba Signed Agreement to Schedule the Second Phase of IDC Service Construction in Eastern China

December 30, 2019

BEIJING, Dec. 30, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- 21Vianet Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: VNET) ("21Vianet" or the "Company"), a leading carrier- and cloud-neutral Internet data center services provider in China, today announced that it has signed an agreement with Alibaba to initiate the second phase of construction as part of the previously announced memorandum of understanding (the "MoU"). The construction is planned to be completed in different stages. The first building is expected to be completed by the first half of 2020. During the contract term, the first building is expected to generate revenue of over RMB600 million.

Mr. Alvin Wang, Chief Executive Officer and President of 21Vianet, stated, "We are excited to move forward with Alibaba in the second phase of IDC service deployment as we continue to help them expand throughout Eastern China. In light of the rising demand for dedicated hosting solutions, we plan to continue leveraging our differentiated offerings to secure new market opportunities and cultivating our relationships with industry partners. Such partners have a strong desire for large-scale and hyperscale IDC services that are both reliable and capable of consistently operating at a high level of performance."
